7	Absolutely great, my favorite part!
8	I enjoyed the whole day! I haven't laughed so much in a very long time. I gained a better understanding of the differences in the generations I work with and was reinforced in my training on communication. I have a couple of young people at work who start their e-mails with "Hey Lois" which I find annoying and unprofessional. Please understand that we aren't great friends...just correspond sometimes for work.
